Ravensburger Verlag

Ravensburger Verlag publishes books for young readers of all ages. With the blue triangle logo guaranteeing high quality products, the program includes picture books for the very small, first reading books for beginner readers, novels for young readers and non-fiction books for children. We publish around 400 books a year and altogether more than 1900 titles are available.

Ravensburger books are fun to read and look at, stimulate the imagination and promote child development. This starts with the play+® series for the very small, continues via committed books for young readers of all ages, and extends right up to children's encyclopedias and non-fiction titles. We attach particular value to content and the material quality of our books. More information about the company and its history can be found here.

But oops, the mouse is too small, the elephant is too big, and the bear doesn't feel like it today. Paula's bottom fits perfectly on her new potty and in the end she manages to do a wee-wee. Hurray! It's really easy! Potty training is an important milestone in a child's development. This book lovingly accompanies kids along the way.

Little Animals, Big Feelings
When Kind Racoons Get Angry

Little Animals, Big Feelings
When Little Hedgehogs Are Brave

24 pages, 19 x 19 cm, 9.99 EUR, 2 years +

24 pages, 19 x 19 cm, 9.99 EUR, 2 years +

- What helps me when I'm really angry?
- An important topic in early childhood development
- Storybook for kids aged 2 and up
- A story to talk about anger on equal terms

- What helps me to be brave?
- Fear and courage: Important topics in early childhood development
- Storybook for kids aged 2 and up
- A story to talk to kids about fear on their level

The little raccoon is angry. The moose ate his apple. Totally angry, the little raccoon stomps through the forest and meets various animals. They all deal with anger differently: the bear rages and stamps on the ground, the owl takes a deep breath and counts to four, the puma roars loudly, and the chipmunk cries until he feels better. Are these ideas that can also help the angry raccoon?

The little hedgehog wants to sleep, but there are rustling and squeaking noises all around him. Where are they coming from? He's getting a little scared. He can't sleep like this! So what should he do? He sets off and meets various animals. What do they do to be brave in the dark? The rabbits snuggle up together in their burrow. The frog sings and hops over to his friends, and the mouse thinks up encouraging stories. Can that help the hedgehog be brave too?

My Glückshausen Search-and-Find-Books:

Sun and Rain - That's Our Life

24 pages, 19 x 19 cm, 12 EUR, 2 years +

- "Sometimes we feel sad," explains Mom. "But that makes the joy feel even better - like a thousand dancing soap bubbles."
- First children's book by BarbaraSofie, known from social media
- A strong message: beautifully implemented and explained in a child-friendly way
- A guide to life, not just for little ones

Together, mother and child search for answers to difficult questions: Why are we sometimes sad? Why do we argue even though we love each other? And why do we need to rest and can't always play? Mom explains that arguments and reconciliation, day and night, rain and sunshine are all part of life, and that the beautiful moments and the dark moments are inseparable.

In a read-aloud story suitable for children, BarbaraSofie explains why we need both sides in our lives.

Why? Why? Why? Main Series

16 pages, 27.80 x 24.50 cm, 14.99 EUR, 4 years +, Wire-0

The WWW series stands out for its playful, enticing way of conveying just the information that kids want to know. Centered on who-what-how questions, the titles in the series explore subjects of great interest to young children. The thousands of questions children ask daily are answered by means of interactive elements, engaging illustrations, and age-appropriate texts. Because the lively illustrations convey so much, the books hold children's interest even without an adult to read the clear, friendly texts. WWW is ideally suited for preschool and kindergarten ages, for children 4 to 7 years old.

Vol. 60: Everything About Water

- Whether liquid or frozen, rippling or powerful – everything you need to know about the most valuable substance on earth
- Versatile content: nature, people, technology
- Child-friendly explanations about everything water can do – ages 4 and up
- Use flaps to gain insights into the sewage treatment plant and sluice, or create ebb and flow

Water is essential for survival: we need it to drink, to wash, but also to produce our food and everyday items, and to generate electricity. Where can water be found on Earth? How do rain and snow form? Flap pages illustrate what happens in rivers and why we need the oceans. Kids also learn why floods occur and why water shortages happen. With practical tips on saving water and protecting the climate.

Vol. 3: 3 Strays Become Movie Stars

224 pages, 14,3 x 21,5 cm, 11.99 EUR,
8 years +, Bound

- Dog stories for children aged 8 and over
- A cuddly story for the whole family
- Anja Fröhlich tells a hilarious story from the perspective of three dogs

What an injustice that cries to the heavens: King Kerl gets to play a sheepdog in a movie, but Big Ben and Flirty don't! Somehow, the three strays have to manage to appear in this film. Originally, only one role was intended for their owner Joy, but that would have been far too boring. During filming in the mountains, the dogs not only cause quite a stir, but also have to deal with a nasty pretty boy with a golden collar.

About the Series:

The 3 strays go through thick and thin together, even if they're knee-deep in ... um, in trouble. Knee-deep incidentally meaning something different for each of them.
