Anger in My Tummy: Which Feelings Do You Know?

16 pages, 19,5 x 22,8 cm, 12.99 EUR, 2 years + with Game Chips

- Recognize, name, and understand feelings
- With 5 sturdy emotion game chips to throw into the book
- Promotes emotional development and empathy in young children
- With tips for parents to stimulate conversation on every double page

The forest animals want to have a party! They experience many emotions – from joy to anger. Kids aged 24 months and older can help identify the animals' emotions and find the matching emotion tokens. Who is angry? Simply throw the matching token into the top of the book and watch it land in the animal's belly. This helps kids learn to name and understand emotions in a playful way. Each double page also contains tips for parents to help them talk to their children about feelings.

Bandages, Please! Says Doctor Bear

16 pages, 19,5 x 22,8 cm, 12.99 EUR, 2 years + with Stickers

- With Doctor Bear and his magic bandages, every little ache and pain will soon be better!
- 15 reusable stickers – stick to all smooth surfaces and are washable
- Promotes social-emotional development
- Learn to count from 1 to 5 in a playful way

Oh dear, what's going on with the animals? They're all hurt! In this book, kids aged 24 months and older accompany Doctor Bear on his house calls. With 15 reusable band-aid stickers, they help the animals with their little aches and pains and learn to count from one to five in a playful way: 1 band-aid for the mouse, 2 for the rabbit... and how many band-aids does the hippopotamus get? The funny rhymes encourage speech development and empathy – a unique activity book for little helpers.

The WWW series stands out for its playful, enticing way of conveying just the information that kids want to know. Centered on who-what-how questions, the titles in the series explore subjects of great interest to young children. The thousands of questions children ask daily are answered by means of interactive elements, engaging illustrations, and age-appropriate texts. Because the lively illustrations convey so much, the books hold children's interest even without an adult to read the clear, friendly texts. WWW is ideally suited for preschool and kindergarten ages, for children 4 to 7 years old.

Vol. 66: What Animals Build

- Amazing animal architecture – from digging pros and nest builders
- Impressive animal structures from eagle's nests to beaver lodges
- Flaps reveal where animals hide and how their burrows work
- With examples from around the world and different habitats

Who builds intricate tunnel systems? What is a beaver lodge made of? What does a weaver bird's nest look like? In this book, kids discover the breadth of animal architecture: from anthills to giant nests and tree hollows to fox dens and gardens on the sea floor. Animals all over the world and in all habitats build curious things to breed in, store food in, or hibernate in. Flaps provide fascinating insights into caves, nests, and other shelters.
